Dear Reader

Legacies To Save A Life

I decided some time ago to make a legacy in my will towards the excellent work of ZANE: Zimbabwe A National Emergency.

As I am sure you are aware, ZANE has been doing valuable work in Zimbabwe for over ten years. Sadly, Tom Benyon has told me that the position for those effectively trapped in the country is worse today than it has ever been.

I fear that no end to the present regime appears to be in sight. I am sure that, whoever comes to power in the near future, such has been the destruction of the economy in recent years, it will take a generation before the position can be restored to anything like normality.

I have decided to leave money in my will to support the excellent work of ZANE saving lives in Zimbabwe. I hope you might do the same.

Thank you

Michael Hastings

Reasons to support ZANE

- 1 ZANE builds a personal relationship with every one of the 2,600 elderly, often very lonely, people to whom we give aid, support and encouragement. Only those really in need of assistance receive it.
- 2 ZANE provides the only social services network in Zimbabwe. Where help for the poverty-stricken is needed, ZANE staff draw support from a range of sources, including family members in Zimbabwe and overseas.
- 3 Donors are able to choose which aspect of ZANE's mission they plan to support.
- 4 Recently ZANE was the Telegraph Group Overseas Charity of the year.
- 5 ZANE is in effective partnership with all the relevant UK Services' charities. Since 2004, ZANE has distributed over £2.2m in grants to war veterans and their widows in Zimbabwe.
- 6 ZANE runs micro-finance and training initiatives to enable self-help businesses and food production in impoverished communities in Zimbabwe.
- 7 ZANE funded the first clubfoot correction programme in Zimbabwe. Eleven treatment centres have been established and over 1,500 children have received treatment to date.
- 8 ZANE receives no aid from the government and relies wholly on support from private donors.
- 9 An independent consultancy reviewed ZANE and the report stated: "The charity thrives on its responsiveness, flexibility and lack of bureaucracy. Operationally ZANE is frugal, focussed and effective in delivering aid to the needy."
