REASONS TO SUPPORT ZANE

1. ZANE provides aid, comfort and support to 1,800 impoverished pensioners with nowhere else to turn. Only those genuinely in need of assistance receive it.
2. Donors can choose which area of ZANE's work they wish to support.
3. ZANE was recently the Telegraph Group Overseas Charity of the year.
4. ZANE is looking after 615 aged and frail veterans and their widows. These people fought for the Crown in WW2, Malaya, Korea and Aden. Despite their loyal service to the UK, the overwhelming majority are living with insufficient food and limited healthcare.
5. ZANE runs education programmes in the high-density areas assisting women and children living in extreme poverty.
6. ZANE funded the first clubfoot correction programme in Zimbabwe. Eleven treatment centres have been established and over 3,550 children have received treatment to date.
7. ZANE funds the provision of prosthetic limbs for victims of landmine explosions and treatment for people with hearing loss.
8. ZANE's funds are subject to rigorous audit and ZANE is proud that since its foundation it has never lost money to collapsed banks, middlemen or corruption.
9. An independent consultancy reviewed ZANE and the report stated:
"The charity thrives on its responsiveness, flexibility and lack of bureaucracy. Operationally ZANE is frugal, focused and effective in delivering aid to the needy."

28 August to 11 September

ZANE: Zimbabwe A National Emergency

PLEASE SPONSOR US TODAY AND SAVE LIVES

DEAR READER

This Could Be Me

Why are Jane and I – along with our dog, Moses – walking yet again?

We are walking because ZANE must help people such as Joan (please see opposite). Yet for every Joan ZANE can afford to help, another pensioner with a heartbreaking story appears on our waiting list.

There are hundreds of destitute pensioners who, through no fault of their own, must try and survive without healthcare or pensions. They have already lost all their savings in recent years, stolen from them by the government through hyperinflation. Now they are facing yet another economic catastrophe. Prices are escalating on a weekly basis as the market rate for US currency teeters out of control: for these pensioners, everyday items – like milk and butter – are now but a memory.

It is a perilous time to be a dependent pensioner in Zimbabwe, now more than ever. Without ZANE, pensioners tell us they would face a silent and lonely death from malnutrition and the absence of medical care.

So, Jane and I are dedicating this walk to ZANE's loyal supporters, who bring hope, comfort and aid to those who need it most. We also dedicate the walk to our team of compassionate, brave and faithful ZANE workers, who make survival possible. They manage to ensure your donations really are spent wisely and that they are not stolen or lost through corruption. The ZANE team is saving the lives of trapped pensioners who would otherwise face despair: those who have no one to turn to but ZANE.

Please consider sponsoring us once again. Together we can assist more people like Joan, and replace loneliness and despair with hope and love.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely

Tom Benyon OBE

I have supported ZANE for many years as they do excellent work amongst the vulnerable in Zimbabwe.

I have seen a little bit of ZANE's work on the ground and from what I have seen it is very, very impressive . . . ZANE is one of those lovely organisations that make a little bit of money go a long, long way. ZANE is a good cause and the money is properly and well spent.

CARING FOR OTHERS

Joan*, 79, spent her entire life caring for others. She worked as a matron in care homes for the elderly until ill health forced her to retire. Always a keen walker, Joan was recently dealt a very cruel blow when she was forced to have her foot amputated. Joan had been experiencing diabetes-related infections for some years but sadly nothing could be done to save her foot.

Having led such an active life, this is taking a lot of adjustment. No longer able to live on her own, Joan has moved to a frail-care home - ironically round the corner from where she worked as a matron for so many years.

"It has been a terrifying time and I miss my independence so much." Yet, without ZANE it would be so much worse. The care home fees are much greater than the rent on her cottage but thanks to the generosity of ZANE's supporters Joan is able to receive the help she needs. ZANE also assists Joan's two sisters who, like her, lost their life savings in the economic crash. "Thank you for helping us in our hour of need and for ensuring Joan is cared for. It is a true blessing to know people care so much."
